

Python Basics Projects

- Number to words . Create a python function that takes an integer number and print the number in words
- Google Image Downloader : create a python function that takes a url of an image from google and save location , then download the image in the save location
- Print colored text : create a python function that takes a text from the user and print the text in colors
- BMI calculator : create a python function that takes the user height , weight and print the user BMI and if the user underweight , overweight or healthy
- Screenshot taker : Create a python script that take a desktop screenshot every minute , and save them in a new folder on the desktop
- Birthday Calculator : create a python function that takes a user birthdate and print how many days left to the birthday
- Age Calculator : create a python function that takes user birthdate and prints how old he is
- Count the frequency of each unique element in a string : create a python function that takes a string and prints how many time each unique word exists in the sentence
- Image resizer : create a python function that takes an image path , the the needed image size then resize the image to this size and save it in the same folder

- Typing Speed Test : create a python script that can count how many words the user type per minute
- Days Calculator : create a python function that takes 2 dates and prints how many days between the 2 dates
-